

Volume 1 – Day 27: Be A Dispenser of Grace

Sometimes I think in certain places, church can be the most discouraging of places, because you're okay until you have a problem. Or you're okay until you sin. And then you're not okay.

Well the church (body of Christ) needs to be encouraging at all times. You know! When you've sinned, that's when you need grace. Somebody in the church needs to be supplying the grace that you need so you can change. So if a part of your life is unfruitful right now the Holy Spirit wants to take that part and lift it into a higher place of relationship.

Maybe your current experience of life has gone beyond your present experience of God. You need to be lifted up. Your current situation has gone beyond your present experience of who God is for you. So you need to be lifted up. You need to be encouraged into a higher place of relationship. Maybe you need to be encouraged into a higher place of trust; a higher place of peace; a higher place of grace. This is what we are for each other. This is what we do. This is what we should be famous for in the world. No one should be safe from a blessing! No matter where you go, no matter who they are....no one's safe from the blessing of grace.

Grace, by definition means to express favor that is undeserved. If one must do anything in order to get your grace, (like changing their behavior) you are talking about a reward, and not grace. "Where sin abounds, grace much more abounds." This was not intended to encourage us to sin more in order to get more grace. It was written so that we can be certain that we cannot commit any sin which is too horrible for God to grant us grace.

The more you love, the more grace you will give.

My Confirming Scriptures:

My Aligning Experiences:

DEEPER Every Day -- John Henry Alan